Havana Says J. S. Pays Saboteur

KEY WEST, Fla., July 1.

(AP) — Havana Radio reported today the Central Intelligence Agency had given $100,000 to the "revolutionary" Manuel Ray for the purpose of committing acts of sabotage in Cuba."

The radio report did not give a source for the statement.

Ray is one of the Cuban exile leaders involved in the April 17 invasion of Cuba's Zapata Peninsula. He also says he is the leader of an underground organization on the island.

"Aided by Yankee imperialists, Ray directs a so-called people's revolutionary movement that doesn't count the its members a single Cuban peasant," the radio said.
